1. Welcome to Nova Tech

Nova Tech Solutions was founded in 2015 and is headquartered in Bengaluru, with offices in Pune and Hyderabad. The company has about 450 employees and builds software and data products for customers in banking, retail and healthcare.

Our values are customer first, integrity, ownership and continuous learning. This handbook explains what you can expect from the company and what the company expects from you.

2. Departments and Teams

Nova Tech has six departments: Engineering, Data and AI, Product, Human Resources, Finance and Sales. Each department is led by a Vice President who reports to the leadership team.

Every employee belongs to a team of 6 to 10 people led by a team lead. Team leads hold a weekly planning meeting every Monday at 10:30 AM.

3. Onboarding

On the first day, new joiners attend an orientation at the HR desk at 10:00 AM. An employee ID card is issued within 2 working days of joining.

Each new employee is assigned a buddy for the first 30 days. The mandatory information security training must be completed in the first week.

4. Probation and Confirmation

The probation period is 6 months from the date of joining. At the end of probation the manager and HR review performance and confirm the employee in writing.

The notice period during probation is 15 days. After confirmation the notice period is 60 days for all employees.

5. Performance Reviews

Performance is reviewed twice a year. The main annual appraisal takes place in April and a mid-year check-in takes place in October. Ratings use a scale of 1 to 5.

Employees with a rating of 4 or above are considered for promotion. Salary increments are decided after the April appraisal.

6. Training and Learning

Every employee gets a learning budget of Rs. 25,000 per year for courses, books and conferences, and is expected to complete at least 40 hours of learning each year.

The fee for a professional certification exam is reimbursed after the employee passes. Internal tech talks are held every Friday at 4:00 PM.

7. Compensation and Benefits

The company contributes 12% of basic salary to the Provident Fund. An annual performance bonus of up to 10% of annual salary is paid based on the April rating.

Meal coupons worth Rs. 2,200 per month are provided. Employees who refer a successful candidate receive a referral bonus of Rs. 30,000 once the new hire completes 3 months.

8. Health Insurance

Every employee is covered by a group health insurance policy of Rs. 5 lakh from the first day of employment. The cover includes the employee, spouse and up to 2 children. Parents can be added by paying an additional premium.

Cashless treatment is available at network hospitals. Each employee is also eligible for one free annual health check-up.

9. Office Facilities

The cafeteria is open from 12:00 PM to 3:00 PM. A shuttle service runs from 7:00 AM to 9:00 PM on 4 routes across the city.

Meeting rooms can be booked through the calendar tool. The office also has a gym, a quiet room and free parking for two-wheelers.

10. IT Equipment

A laptop is issued to every employee on joining and is replaced after 3 years of use. Employees must not install unlicensed or personal software on company laptops.

A lost or damaged device must be reported to the IT helpdesk within 48 hours. All equipment must be returned on the last working day.

11. Attendance

Attendance is recorded by biometric swipe at the office entrance. A full working day requires at least 8 hours of logged time and a half day requires at least 4 hours.

A late arrival is any swipe after 10:30 AM. Three late arrivals in a month are counted as one half-day leave. Monthly attendance percentage is calculated as days present divided by total working days multiplied by 100, and at least 90% attendance is needed for bonus eligibility.

12. Exit Process

To resign, an employee must submit a written resignation to the manager and HR and serve the notice period. An exit interview is held in the last week of employment.

The final settlement is paid within 45 days after the last working day, once all company assets have been returned.
